Historical Marker Tour: All Year – We have refurbished our Hancock County historical markers, we now have a tri-fold brochure with a Google type map to offer your family a chance to travel through time in a familiar place. Follow the map on your cellphone with a QR CODE self-guided tour through Hancock Co., while visiting each marker and pondering the past. Pick up brochure at Chapel/Tourism Office.

"Junior's Story" TBD – We're honored that the Duzan family has donated their memorabilia of Fred Duzan Jr., WW2 belly-turret gunner on a B-24 Liberator, including a collection of letters exchanged as his family sought to determine his fate and the diary he left for them. Watch for this project to evolve as we transcribe and present these documents. Travel with us to 1944 and meet a man from McCordsville who wrote his own story...

2022 FEATURED EXHIBITION

Chapel in the Park Museum Now OPEN!!

Saturdays & Sundays, noon – 5pm

Call: 317-462-7780 to schedule private group tours.

Vivian Pierson Ramsey/Museum Exhibit – The lady who wore hats and lived in "The House in the Woods" was a familiar figure in newsprint and on local radio WSMJ (yes, we did have a radio station) for decades. We have recently acquired many artifacts of her life and times. See them in the Chapel Museum!

And there's more coming.... Watch social media for news!
